

The magical benefits of PTA

Imagine your school without PTA. No voice for children. No arts, no music, no parent participation. No partnership between teachers, administrators and parents. No communication between home and school – drab and colorless place for children.

But wait – wave the magic wand of PTA, and suddenly everything brightens. Colors light up the classrooms and playground.

PTA provides:

- ❖ National Reflections Arts Program
- ❖ Organized opportunities to voice concerns on behalf of all children and youth
- ❖ Practical ideas for programs which benefit all students and their families
- ❖ More informed parents, as parents involved in PTA understand the challenges schools face, and become part of the solution
- ❖ Networking with other parents to share ideas, concerns and experiences
- ❖ Timely information on how you can advocate and influence legislators on behalf of children, families and schools
- ❖ Improved academic performance, as research studies show kids do better when their parents are involved
- ❖ Access to information on issues and programs concerning the education health and welfare of children and their families.
