

Your voice matters – join the conversation!

When parents and families take an active role in their children's education both at home and in the community, children perform better in school and have a better chance of furthering their education.

Get the facts!

- Find out what your school district is doing to engage you and all parents.
- Share your ideas directly with administrators and school board members. Attend a meeting or volunteer to serve on a committee.
- Talk with your children's teachers and principal about the new law.
- Talk with other parents and connect with your local PTA.
- Learn more about the eight priority areas of the Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) and how they can help your child succeed.
- Find more information from your school district's website or www.capta.org/lcff.

Learn more – get engaged!

We hope the information in this special edition is just the start of your engagement. Here are a number of other great resources to learn more and to get engaged:

- Your local school district's website – A good place to start to learn more about programs and services at your school. Be sure to also look at the School Accountability Report Cards (SARCs) that must be posted for each school.
- California State PTA – Informational videos, fliers and more in multiple languages available to PTAs and all parents at www.capta.org.
- EdSource.org – Offers a guide to the LCFF along with news and information about California K-12 finance system.

More great resources, videos, comprehensive information and tools are available at:

- WestEd.org
- cde.ca.gov
- EdTrust.org/west and FairShare4Kids.org
- Ed100.org
- ChildrenNow.org
- Eddata.org

Visit www.capta.org/lcff to download informational fliers and additional resources.