REMEMBER TO END MEETING ON TIME

- BYLAWS: Before you begin anything else, read your PTA's bylaws! Go over them with the executive board so everyone understands responsibilities, quorums, meetings, elections, standing rules and basic policies of the organization. Review bylaws each year; submit updates for California State PTA approval at least every five years.
- CO-OFFICERS: Co-officers are not recognized by the California State PTA A committee may be appointed to assist the position if needed. Only one vote per position is permitted.
- COMMITTEES: Committees are formed for a specific purpose; to plan, promote and implement the activities of the PTA They function at the discretion of the membership and should be representative of the association. Individuals have the opportunity to learn about PTA, acquire leadership skills, discover resources and help develop creative solutions. Committees make recommendations; they do not make decisions. Programs must be presented to the executive board, with final approval given by the association. The president is an ex-officio member of every committee except the nominating committee.
- PROCEDURE BOOK: Due to ongoing changes in leadership, PTA leaders need guidance. Each officer/chairman must have a procedure book to ensure continuity and progress. A procedure book is NOT personal property and belongs to the office/chairman, not the individual. A procedure book should contain: materials needed to carry out the work of the office, job description, bylaws/standing rules, agendas/minutes, finance, calendar, reports and a directory.

WHO RUNS YOUR PTA?

General Membership --The Association:

- ◆ The most important component of your PTA is the membership. The members are your organization.
- ◆ Members should approve the budget, all expenditures of funds, programs and activities.
- ◆ Executive board meetings do not replace the necessity of reporting and obtaining approval of PTA business.
- ◆ All association meetings and proposed action items must be publicized at least 10 days in advance and provide members an opportunity to speak at meetings, no matter how many attend. General meetings are held in the months stated in your bylaws.

Executive Board:

- ◆ Must be members of the PTA
- ◆ Meets monthly during the school year.
- ◆ Plans and carries out activities, programs and expenditures, with final approval from the membership.
- ◆ The president sets the agenda for each meeting, with input from the executive board members.
- ◆ All board members may make motions and suggestions, including the principal and teacher representative.
- ◆ Follows PTA protocol at all times.

Principal:

- ◆ Serves as an advisor to the nominating committee and the executive board.
- ◆ Has prior approval of PTA information sent home with students.
- ◆ Works with the president and board on unit programs and activities.
- ◆ Is a full voting member of the executive board.
- ◆ Has no control over the PTA's money.
